Unsung Heroine Award

An Unsung Heroine is a woman who has demonstrated extraordinary dedication to issues that affect women at Emory or in the larger community, but whose efforts have not received publicity or formal recognition.

Examples of the efforts of these women include:

• Taking substantial risks to challenge sexism
• Blazing trails in previously male-dominated environments
• Promoting safety, justice, and equity for girls and women through significant community service
• Serving as role models or mentors for girls or women
